A message from the Joint General Secretaries

To all Unite political levy payers

Unite, after extensive consultation throughout the union, has nominated Ed Miliband for Labour leader. He understands the Labour Party needs to change and he is the best candidate to reconnect Labour with the concerns of ordinary working people.

Unite is urging you to put Ed Miliband as your first preference.

Ed is leading the challenge against the Conservative-Liberal Democrat Coalition and the cuts they are pushing through against the interests of Unite members. He shares the values of Unite, knows the importance of trade unions to the Labour Party and society and will support the interests of members like you.

We believe Ed will lead a strong opposition that will return a renewed Labour Party to Government at the first opportunity.

Ballot for the Labour candidate for Mayor of London

Unite political levy payers in London can also vote for who should be Labour's candidate for the London Mayoral election in 2012. For this vote Unite's London region recommends you vote for Ken Livingstone as the candidate best placed to advance our agenda.

Ken promises to stand up for all Londoners, including trade unionists across the sectors from finance to manufacturing to public services. Ken has a track record of supporting public transport in London, crucial to Unite members as bus workers and as commuters. Ken will work for a clean, green and safe London.

Please vote Ken Livingstone to be Labour's candidate for London Mayor.

Yours sincerely,

Derek Simpson

Tony Woodley
