

Mayor's close ally and candidate, Gulam Robbani

Rahman is seeking to place close ally on the council by putting forward Gulam Robbani as an independent. Robbani is also involved in business deals with the council gained for him by Rahman. His company G Care has had lucrative council contracts and he was also previously a paid advisor to Rahman. There are currently more than twenty advisors costing tax payers half a million pounds a year.

In the late nineties Robbani resigned as a senior officer with Tower Hamlets Social Services rather than facing prosecution for embezzling money from an old peoples project. A report prepared by senior council officers has never been published.

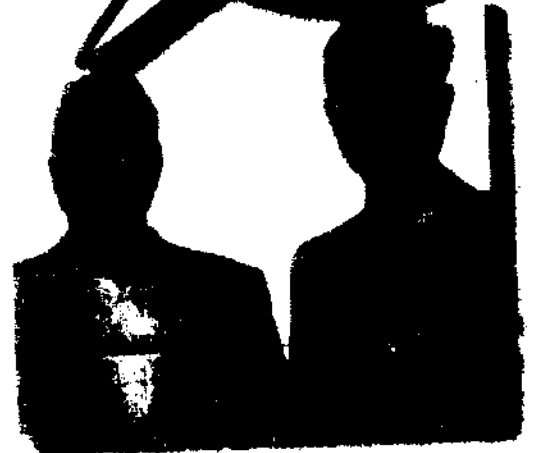

Your vote is vital to defeat Robbani more than ever since more and more ghost voters are appearing on the register of electors. Lutfur Rahman is a past master of the art of the non-existent voters, having been expelled from the Labour Party for packing its own membership lists in Tower Hamlets.

You could read this leaflet and be angry but then do nothing. Your vote is vital but it must be cast, anger alone will not defeat Lutfur Rahman's corrupt regime. You must also vote tactically. Whatever your political beliefs there is only one candidate with a chance of defeating Robbani.
